LINGAFELTERS

Indicted on Eighty-Three Counts by the Grand Jury.

Whole Family to Be Tried Here in November.

Deputy Sheriff Linke Went to Cincinnati After R. C. Lingafelter Against Whom 50 Charges are Preferred—Louis Long Charged With Blackmail.

The grand jury for the Common Pleas court of Licking county, after having been in continuous session for the past twelve days, made its report late Monday afternoon. As announced in Monday's paper, during the session 314 witnesses were examined and 102 indictments were returned. One hundred and thirty-five cases were considered of which 33 cases were ignored. Of the 102 indictments returned, 83 were against James F. Lingafelter, his wife, Mary J. Lingafelter, and his son, Robert C. Lingafelter. The indictments returned were as follows:

James F. Lingafelter, embezzlement, 4 counts; forgery, 8 counts, false entries, 2 counts.

Mary J. Lingafelter, false entries, 19 counts.

Robert C. Lingafelter, forgery, 20 counts; false entries, 23 counts, and one for grand larceny.

Score after the report of the jury was returned J. F. Lingafelter was arrested on the charge of embezzlement and for forgery, and Mrs. Lingafelter on the charge of making false entries. They were taken before Judge C. W. Seward who fixed their bond in the sum of $1500 each, Rev. B. M. O'Boylan and Mrs. Mary Lavin being their sureties. Attorneys Smythe & Smythe represent Mr. Lingafelter, and Judge J. D. Jones is looking after the interests of Mrs. Lingafelter. Lingafelter was cashier of the defunct Newark Savings Bank and was secretary of the Homestead Building Association which failed last May.

Sheriff W. H. Anderson, Jr., telegraphed to the Chief of Police at Cincinnati to arrest Robert C. Lingafelter, and Deputy Sheriff Wm. Link went to Cincinnati for the young man.

Their cases will probably be called for trial about the latter part of November in Common Pleas court here.

Another indictment returned by the grand jury which was not made public is that against Louis Long charged with blackmailing.

After the Grand Jury made its report to the Court on Monday afternoon, warrants were issued for the arrest of the Lingafelters, which were served upon Mr. and Mrs. James F. Lingafelter by Deputy Sheriff William Linke.

Mr. and Mrs. Lingafelter entered the Common Pleas court room shortly after five o'clock, accompanied by the Rev. B. M. O'Boylan and a lady friend of Mrs. Lingafelter to give the bond required by law for their appearance at trial by the Common Pleas court.

Prosecuting Attorney Fitzgibbon was at once sent for and soon appeared, as did also Attorney B. G. Smythe, who represents J. F. Lingafelter, and Judge John David Jones, who represents Mrs. Lingafelter. Mr. Fitzgibbon informed the court that a number of additional indictments had been found against the Lingafelters, and that he thought the bond ought to be increased. Judge Seward then fixed the bond of Mr. and Mrs. Lingafelter at $1500 each, Mr. Lingafelter on the specific charge of forgery, and Mrs. Lingafelter on the charge of making false entries. The bonds of each were in readiness, having been prepared by Deputy Clerk of the Courts, Mr. E. M. Larson, and they were at once signed. Mr. Lingafelter signed his own bond, and Mrs. Lingafelter signed her bond, as principals, and Father O'Boylan and Mrs. Mary Lavin, Mrs. Lingafelter's mother, then signed both bonds as sureties.

Thus closed another chapter in the tragic story of the wrecking of the Newark Savings Bank, and the Homestead Building and Savings Company, connected with it.

Deputy Sheriff Linke is expected home from Cincinnati with Robert C. Lingafelter tonight.

THE ARREST OF ROBERT.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 4.—Robert C. Lingafelter, son of the banker of Newark, O., who was arrested here about three weeks ago by the local police on a warrant charging forgery, was again taken into custody Monday afternoon, a telegram being received from Sheriff Anderson of Newark, that Lingafelter had been indicted by the grand jury on the charge of forgery. Lingafelter was released on $2,500 bond after his first arrest here and came back to Cincinnati.

Deputy Sheriff Link is here today to take Lingafelter back to Newark.

HOLDING BACK EXPENDITURES

Till After Election, is Scheme of Republicans to Stop Talk of Extravagance.

Washington, Oct. 4.—The bureau officers of the various departments of the government are not only under orders from the President to say nothing about the proposed expenditures for the next fiscal year, but that they have been instructed to do nothing involving the payment out of money that can possibly be put off until after the election.

The object is to keep government expenditures down to the lowest possible point in order that the growing deficit in the revenues may not reach alarming proportions before November.

In compliance with this "do nothing" policy, it is said the inauguration of all sorts of government work, authorized by Congress, is being systematically delayed. In some instances, it is said, pay for work already done has been delayed.

As a result of this policy there has been a general slowing down all along the line in the departments, where bureau officials are merely marking time until the election is over.

VOLCANO

Hazing Immense Sulphur Deposits was Purchased by New York Parties in Mexico.

City of Mexico, Oct. 4.—Popocatepetl, the volcano with immense sulphur deposits, was transferred to New York parties. General Gaspar Sanchez Ochoa, one of the principal owners of the property, received $300,000 gold and will be given 200,000 shares in an American company with a capital of $5,000,000 which will operate the deposit. The company will construct a cog railway from the village of Amecameca, at the base of the mountain, to the summit.

A SHERIFF SHOT

Las Vegas, N. M., Oct. 4.—(Bulletin.)—Sheriff Melendez of Mora county, has been shot and killed as the result of a political quarrel.

Strike Deserters Shot.

Somerset, Pa., Oct. 4.—Wm. Sutton and William Kemp, who are alleged to have recently deserted the ranks of the men who have been on a strike since last December in the Meyersdale coal region, were fired upon from ambush this morning while on their way to work in a mine. Both had their legs riddled with buckshot which it is claimed were fired by strikers. The wounded men were removed to their homes and posse of guards employed in the region began searching for the criminals who have not been found.

60 HOURS

Freight Handler Locked in Refrigerator Car Nearly Dead.

Laporte Ind., Oct. 4.—After two and a half days imprisonment in a refrigerator car on the Michigan Central railroad, a freight handler at Detroit was released when the car reached Laporte. While putting back some meat hooks at Detroit in a car destined for Chicago, the door was closed and sealed and though the man endeavored to attract attention he was unable to do so until he had been locked in for sixty hours. A brakeman finally heard the pounding and broke open the door. The freight handler was almost dead from cold and lack of food.

SCHOOL OF FISH COMPELS A BOAT TO SEEK LANDING

Gallipoli, O., Oct. 4.—The steamer Lanesville ran into a school of catfish at Raccoon Island last night. The buckets were torn from the boat's wheels and Capt. Sam Hamilton was compelled to land. One fish weighing 82 pounds, which the boat had pushed on shore was captured.

IROQUOIS CASES

Judge Kersten After Listening to Arguments for Days, Grants a Change of Venue.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—The arguments of several days over a petition for a change of venue in the Iroquois theatre cases culminated today in Judge Kersten granting the petition, after State's Attorney Barnes withdrew his objections. Prior to this move on the part of Mr. Barnes, the attorney for the defense said he could produce fifty thousand affidavits to the effect that the defendants could not receive a fair trial in Cook county. He said further that he could produce ten thousand affidavits at that time and he did it in ten volumes signed by all classes of people.

Judge Kersten said later he would name the county and judge before which the case would be tried. He said after granting the petition that early today he had received a letter that he would be visited by a vigilance committee if he granted the petition.

NON-PARTISAN CONVENTION.

St. Louisville, O., Oct. 4.—Notice is hereby given to the qualified electors of St. Louisville village, that there will be held a non-partisan convention at school house in said village on Tuesday evening, October 11, 1904, between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates to be voted for at the next ensuing election.

HUMAN SKULLS

Found by Young Men Who Were on a Hunting Trip in Michigan—Bullet in Each Skull.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 4.—Much excitement has been created in the village of Sparta, 16 miles north, by the discovery of eight skeletons near the town. The discovery was made by three young men who were hunting. They found one skeleton, and upon investigating found three more buried in the ground. An army of persons began digging over the premises, when four more were found. A bullet was found in each skull. The region in which the bodies were found was formerly a wild one, and it is thought that the bodies may be those of early settlers killed by highwaymen.

"SUCCESS TO JAPAN"

Read the Banners Carried by the Mob in Warsaw.

Warsaw, Oct. 4.—The Poles and Jews of this city demonstrated against the war. More than 5,000 people marched through the streets, carrying flags and banners with inscriptions, "Da Meistastanet Japanja," meaning "All success to Japan."

It came to a hot fight between the police and the crowd, and for a time it looked as if the policemen would have the worst of it, when they were reinforced by two regiments of Cossacks, who succeeded in putting an end to the riot, though only after several persons on both sides had been killed and wounded. The Russian papers have been instructed not to mention the affair.

Washington, Pa., Oct. 4.—James Callaghan, colored, was hanged in the jail here at 10:15 o'clock this morning. Death was due to strangulation. There were no sensational incidents connected with the execution. The prisoner went smiling to his death. Last February Callaghan murdered Moss Ray, also colored, while in a jealous rage.

CZAR'S JOURNEY THROUGH RUSSIA RACE FOR LIFE

Four Plots to Take the Emperor's Life.

Bomb Placed on Railway Track, but Police Will Not Tell the Other Three Plots.

Berlin, Oct. 4.—Reports current here today have it that the Czar's recent journey through Russia was one long race for life. His visit to Odessa was shortened for fear of assassination. The police of Odessa claim that they have discovered four plots to take the Czar's life.

One of the plots resulted in placing a bomb on the railway line near Berenewice, Poland. The bomb was discovered and the would-be assassin arrested. The police refuse to divulge the nature of the other plots. They are still working on the cases and do not wish to divulge any details until all the plotters are apprehended.

SCULPTOR

Who Designed Statue of Liberty in New York Bay Dead.

Paris, Oct. 4.—Frederick Auguste Bartholdi, the sculptor of the statue of liberty in New York bay, died this morning at his home on the Rue Assas, Paris. The cause of his death was tuberculosis and he had been bed-ridden since last May. The condition of the sculptor became suddenly aggravated yesterday and death ensued this morning.

MUTINY ON TRAIN BOUND FOR WAR IN FAR EAST

Slaughter of the Japs at Port Arthur.

Artillery Conflicts Occur Daily—Jap Blockade of Port Arthur is Close. Skirmishes at Mukden.

Vienna, Oct. 4.—The revolutionary paper Iskra today states that while the fugitive regiment was on the trains bound from Samaria, Russia, for the seat of war a number of members mutinied. They killed the Colonel near Ufa and threw a sergeant out of the window. No one who participated in the mutiny, the paper adds, was punished. It is recalled that at the recent maneuvers, the same regiment refused to obey the commands of the Colonel and were also not punished. The reason given is that all the military prisons in St. Petersburg are overflowing.

London, Oct. 4.—Cabling under the date of Sept. 29, the Japan correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says: "Terrible artillery conflicts are adding to the horrors of the situation at Port Arthur. On Sept. 22 and 23 the Russians made sorties against positions held by the Kanagawa regiment, and desperate fighting ensued. The Japanese force was practically annihilated, only one noncommissioned officer and 11 men remaining alive out of the 4,000 who went into the engagement. The Japanese tunnel into Port Arthur was completed on Sept. 24 and was immediately used. The result is unknown."

Death of War News.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 4.—The war commission adjourned without issuing further news from the front. A dispatch from Mukden states merely that all is quiet there. There is intense interest here in developments at Mukden, but the public and apparently the authorities also are utterly in the dark as to what is transpiring. The little news received from Port Arthur comes from abroad, but that little is satisfactory, inasmuch as it records a further repulse of the Japanese attacks.

Skirmishing at Mukden.

London, Oct. 4.—Small outpost fights constitute the sum of the activities reported from the vicinity of Mukden. The Japanese blockade of Port Arthur is so effective that General Stoessel has been unable to inform the war office at St. Petersburg of the situation there. The report of the arrival of the Russian armored cruiser Bayan at Hanchuan bay near Shanghai, has no official confirmation.

Japanese Loan.

London, Oct. 4.—The Standard's Tokyo correspondent reports that a conference of bankers decided to issue immediately a third domestic war loan of $40,000,000, completing the loans for the current fiscal year.

FLOOD

That Started Thursday in New Mexico Has Receded.

Roswell, N. M., Oct. 4.—The flood that started Thursday night has receded. The damage will be over $100,000. Water was three feet deep in the main part of the city. So far as known, no lives were lost. The Roswell opera house and about fifteen business houses and residences collapsed. The dyke that was erected by the city was washed out. There have been no trains either north or south since Thursday. The railroad bridges over the Pecos river have been washed away.

LITTLE CHILD SHOOT HIS BABY SISTER AT CHICAGO TODAY

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Playfully pointing a loaded revolver at the head of his 12-year old sister Mary, this morning, Freddie Bittle, 7 years old pulled the trigger and instantly killed the little tot. The children had secured the weapon from a drawer while the mother was in another room.

NO CHANGE

In the Condition of Mr. Payne Who is Still in Very Serious Condition at Washington.

Washington, Oct. 4.—No material change in the condition of Postmaster General Payne has been reported today. He is still hovering between life and death.

Mr. Payne is making a gallant fight for life. At 7 o'clock this morning one of his doctors reported that there was good ground for encouragement. The patient had rallied, taken nourishment, and there were other good indications.

After the severe sinking spell which occurred about midnight and which caused the abandonment of almost the last hope, Mr. Payne finally responded well to the treatment, and the members of the family who had gathered around the bedside, expecting the momentary approach of death, were permitted to again retire.

The physicians issued the following bulletin at 9:30 this morning: "The Postmaster General has again rallied. Heart action very feeble. Condition grave."

When Dr. Osler left the consultation room he said that although Mr. Payne had rallied somewhat he feared the improvement was "only temporary." Mr. Roosevelt, as has been his custom since Mr. Payne has become ill, called at the apartments this morning.

ELECTIONS

In Little Towns of Connecticut Show Slight Changes—No Bearing on November Election.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 4.—A net gain of one town to the Democrats and a gain of two towns to the license column tells in brief the story of the little town elections in Connecticut. The leaders of both the leading political parties had stated that the results of the elections could have no bearing on the November election and their opinion was well founded, for the figures have a purely local significance. For officers 162 towns voted, and of these 128 went Republican, as last year, while the Democrats got 33 as compared with 32 last year.

KILLED HIS WIFE THEN SHOT HIMSELF

Pittsburg, Oct. 4.—As a climax to a quarrel over financial affairs, George Standemeyer, an expert machinist of Allegheny City, aged 52, this morning shot and killed his wife, aged 46, and then put a bullet in his brain. He died at once and his wife died while on the way to a hospital.

The Machen Case

Washington, Oct. 4.—On convening of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia this morning, the appeal of August W. Machen and his confederate in the postoffice conspiracy case, was set for hearing on October 18. This is the case in which Machen, Diller B. and Samuel Groff and George E. Lorenz of Toledo, were convicted and each sentenced to two years in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $10,000, the charge being that they conspired to defraud the government in connection with the sale of a patent letter-box fastener to the postoffice department.

There is said to be a shortage in the world's supply of wool.

THREE ARRESTS

For Murder of Marcus W. Hoy at Thornport Perry County.

A Newark Lawyer is Retained to Defend the Trio.

Chas. Basore, Peter Schrider and John Lloyd Will be Given Hearing Friday Morning—The Crime of Last January is Recalled.

Last January this community was shocked by the brutal murder of Marcus W. Hoy, the railway station agent at Thornport, on the Baltimore & Ohio and Zanesville & Western railroads a few miles south of Newark in Perry county.

Now even a greater sensation than the atrocious murder itself is stirring the village of Thornville owing to the arrest of three well known men at noon Monday on the charge of murdering Mr. Hoy. The men under arrest are:

Charles Basore, aged about 40 years, formerly a hotel keeper at Thornville. Peter Schrider, aged 30 years, employed as driver for the Neel creamery. John Lloyd, also 30 years of age, a blacksmith.

Basore, Schrider and Lloyd are accused of killing M. W. Hoy, on the night of January 10, 1904.

All three were arraigned before Justice Edmunds of Thornville Monday evening and their preliminary hearings were continued until 10 o'clock Friday morning. All were held without bond and were placed in the village bawling under guard.

"We expect to prove them all guilty of first degree murder," said Attorney Thomas H. Dolson, of Lancaster, who was engaged to prosecute them. He was at Thornville Monday. Robbery is thought to have been the motive for the crime.

The three arrests were caused by C. C. Friend, a Pennsylvania railroad detective, who hails from Pittsburg, Pa., spurred on by the glittering reward of $2,000 offered by the railroad, Perry county authorities and Mr. Hoy's family for the arrest and conviction of the murderer or murderers, has been working almost incessantly on the case for the past three months.

For the past two weeks he has been in Thornville and vicinity. His appearance and stay there created no unusual excitement, but when the arrests resulted Monday Friend was the center of all eyes and the murder case and those arrested in connection with it were the subject of all conversations.

Events that have transpired since the murder have been watched closely by Friend. It is largely circumstantial evidence that will be brought forth against the three suspects.

But the strength of this chain of evidence in the opinion of the prosecution, can be conceived when the attorney for the same announces that he expects to prove first degree murder against all three men.

Between 30 and 40 witnesses will be heard in the case. Basore, it is said, the state expects to prove the leader of the trio. He was arrested at New Salem, seven miles west of Thornville. Until this spring he had lived in Thornville. He is married and still returned often to the village.

Schrider, married, and Lloyd, single, were arrested on the streets of Thornville. These men are said to have been almost inseparable companions.

Neither Detective Friend nor Attorney Dolson was in Thornville Tuesday morning and nobody has been found who will give an inkling as to the evidence upon which the murder charge is based. The detective, who has been in Thornville and vicinity for some time, has been quietly at work and nobody seems to know just what evidence he has against the trio. The opinion of those best informed is that an effort will be made to show that Basore is the leader and that the other two men played minor roles in the tragedy. Immediately after the murder Basore went to New Salem, but the day following the crime he is said to have been very liberal in offering an explanation of the mystery of Mr. Hoy's death. Basore is married and has one child.

The defendants are keeping mum. They say nothing about the case further than to declare they are innocent. The murder of Station Agent Hoy and the subsequent mystery which has baffled unraveling for so long will be recalled easily. The young station agent lived in Thornville. He was employed at Thornport, two miles away. He drove to and from his work.

On Sunday night January 10, when Hoy went to a nearby barn to zel his rig to drive home he was set upon and viciously assaulted just after entering the barn. His skull was crushed with a heavy rail spall. Even after he had been fatally assaulted, Hoy traveled back the circuitous route to the station, and there sank unconscious on the floor. He died at 7:30 the next morning at his home in Thornville. Drs. C. U. Hanna and E. C. Brush, of Zanesville operated on Hoy with the hope of saving his life.

Hoy's personal wallet, containing about $100 in cash, was stolen. Another purse containing about $19 in cash, railroad and express money, was left untouched.

At the time of the murder three theories were advanced as to who committed the murder. They were that Hoy was killed by some Thornville resident who had "it in for him" or that a "yeggman" who had familiarized himself with the operator's habits, had committed the desperate deed, and lastly that the man's life was taken by a hobo, who had spent the night in the barn and was surprised at Hoy's entrance.

Hoy was a young man of good habits. He was married and left a wife and one child. He had worked for the Zanesville & Western railway for ten years. Seven years had been spent at Glenford, a station south of Thornville. The last three years were put in at Thornville. Hoy's family is well-to-do and the operator owned a very comfortably furnished home in Thornville.

Detectives from all parts of the state spent several weeks on this case, and at last gave up in despair of landing the perpetrator of the deed. Even the theory that Hoy was kicked to death by his horse was put forth by some. The outcome of the hearings of the trio of alleged murderers will be awaited with great interest.

PHIL B. SMYTHE

Engaged as Counsel for the Three Men Arrested for Murder at Thornville.

Attorney Phil B. Smythe went to Thornville Monday afternoon, where he was called to act as counsel for the three men under arrest for the murder of Station Agent Hoy about a year ago at Thornport.

Mr. Smythe was summoned about 5 o'clock, and drove from this city to Thornville, returning early Tuesday morning.

He said that the case against his clients was purely circumstantial, and that in his opinion there was nothing in it and that they would be acquitted.

LEADER MURPHY

Says Herrick Will be Elected by 75,000 Plurality.

New York, Oct. 4.—"I believe that New York state will elect Herrick by at least 75,000 plurality," said Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, when asked what had been the result of his poll of the state.

"When the Republicans a few days ago said that below the Bronx the Democrats could not secure a plurality of 75,000 votes they doubtless meant that would be the number of excess votes Herrick would have throughout the state.

"I have received reports from every district in the state, and I can come very near to telling just what the vote will be. I do not believe the residents of this state want any more of the present administration. Judge Herrick is so well and favorably known that while I predict a plurality of 75,000 votes I would not be surprised to read of a landslide on the night of the election. By a landslide I mean more than 100,000—maybe 200,000.

"But these figures are guesswork, and I would not want to be quoted on them. But the 75,000 I think is a very conservative estimate."

Tammany men who had been offering 10 to 8 on Herrick increased their offerings to 10 to 7 and in some cases to 7 to 5.

This estimate by Mr. Murphy is the first definite prophecy the Tammany Hall leader has made.

CLAY LICK

Five Members of School Board in Madison Township—Personals From Clay Lick.

Clay Lick, O., Oct. 4.—The Clay Lick Mission held an unusually interesting meeting Sunday evening.

Dr. Roberts of Hanover was here on professional business Saturday.

A goodly number of Clay Lick Odd Fellows enjoyed the trolley excursion to Springfield on Saturday.

Prof. Bert Largent of Newark, than whom there is no better ventriloquist in Central Ohio, was here Saturday evening, giving the beautiful scenery. All professedly regret the Professor's inability to give his entertainment here last Friday evening.

Charles Coughlin, who was a Hanover high school student last year is attending our school this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Thompson, of near Newark, were the pleasant Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hilkey.

Theodore Hilkey, formerly of Clay Lick, now of Newark, was here over Sunday.

Under the auspices of the Hanover lodge of Odd Fellows a public service will be held here Sunday, October 9, beginning at 2 o'clock p. m. Rev. Mr. Schindler and Rev. Mr. Wees, both eloquent speakers, will be present to deliver addresses.

Mr. Robert Jones of Newark, spent Sunday at the school of relations.

Diphtheria is quite prevalent in the school district just north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley very charmingly entertained a number of young people last Saturday evening. Plays and music and conversation were the diversions of the occasion.

The Sabbath school at this place will continue another three months, perhaps longer.

Dr. J. N. Wright of Johnston, was calling on friends here one day last week. The doctor, always affable, made a pleasant impression.

There are five members of the Board of Education to be elected in Madison township at the November election. A number of excellent gentlemen have been nominated, irrespective of political affiliations for these positions, among whom is our own splendid citizen, Mr. Wm. Coughlin. Mr. Coughlin possesses to a high degree the qualifications that a member of a board of education should have, being directly interested in our school, as he has several children attending school. Mr. Coughlin is a man of broad views and has served several years as school director in our district in a way that won the confidence and admiration of all. He will make an ideal member of the Madison township board of education.

DRESDEN WET

Saloons Will Continue to Do Business in That Town—Drys Lost by 32 Votes.

Dresden, O., Oct. 4.—Dresden remains "wet." This was decided at the local option election held in that town Monday, when the "wet" contingent won a victory at the polls by a majority of 32 votes.

There were 402 votes cast. This is practically the full vote of the northern Muskingum town. The election was attended with much hustling and electioneering. Six ballots were thrown out.

This is the second time Dresden has voted on the local option question. Two years ago the "wets" won by 15 votes. It can be seen that this majority was almost doubled this year. There are five saloons in the town.

After the result was known an hour and a quarter after the polls closed, the "wets" immediately began to celebrate.

JERSEY.

Miss White, a missionary to India, will give a lecture here Tuesday night, her subject being "India."

DR. I. H. ROBB

Writes of the Gold Field in State of Washington—Newark People Interested in Mine.

Chesaw, Wash., Sept. 26, 1904.

Dear Sir—As a great many of your readers are financially interested in this country, I feel that they will be pleased to hear of our impressions of the mining interests of this part of Washington. Mrs. Robb and I arrived here on the 6th of this month after visiting St. Louis Fair, Denver, Cripple Creek, Colorado Springs, and Victor, Colo., Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Portland, Ore., and thence through Seattle and Spokane to Chesaw. We have been through the big mines of Cripple Creek and Victor, Colo., also through the Couer de Alene mines, and I will say right here that for every dollar I have invested in the mines of the Myers Creek district I would put in five if I had them to spare. The "Opal" mines, in which a great many of our Newark friends are interested, are the exact counterpart of Stratton's famous "Independence" mine, only of course it has not had the development of that great wealth producer. The "Ben Harrison" mine, while of a lower grade ore than the "Opal" is by virtue of its great ledges, its easy access and the cheap way in which its development can be prosecuted, one of the most valuable properties in the northwest.

About a third of the Ben Harrison mill machinery is on the ground and another lot is due tomorrow. It would certainly interest eastern people to see the heavy pieces of machinery brought over the mountain trails, with six large horses to each piece, and when they strike the steepest grades, they have to double the teams. The mill of the Interstate Mining company is running its full capacity night and day, and is grinding out some very valuable concentrates. We were shown through the plant by its gentlemanly manager, Mr. Henry Thompson. The store house was nearly filled with bags of concentrates, whose weight and value would astonish the uninitiated, while the bins were nearly full of $300 concentrates (meaning three hundred dollars to the ton). This company is composed of Columbus, O., men. They have large holdings here, to which they have just added the Buckeye group of mines, reputed to be a free gold proposition.

One of the most important strikes in camp is one made lately on the Gladstone group of claims, on Porphyry mountain, not only on account of its richness and size, but the peculiar character of its ore. While the other mines here partake of the character, and in fact are the exact counterpart of Cripple Creek, Colo., ores, the Gladstone ledge is of a pure glistening white quartz, heavily shot with steel galena and carrying big values in gold and copper. There is about 12 feet of this ledge, then a false or middle foot wall intervenes and directly on this a vein of pure white quartz two feet wide and of incredible richness. Great bunches of silver as large as a harelut, sprinkled through and carrying values in gold to the amount of $80 per ton. This character of quartz was not supposed to exist this side of the Couer de Alene district. The famous Poor Man mine was the first mine in that country which showed this formation and they have taken seven million of dollars out of it. In fact until the opening up of the Gladstone group this formation was supposed to be peculiar to the Couer de Alene district alone. At present they have an open cut over 60 feet long and about 25 feet in depth, beside numerous working shafts, all in ore, and from 15 to 50 feet in depth. Besides these mines I have mentioned there are scores of good mines which only await proper development to make them a paying proposition. There are also rich placer mines here. Emanuel Kromer, of Newark, is here, and planned out his first gold last Friday.

Well as my letter is too long now, I will close with best wishes from Mrs. Robb and myself to all Newark friends. I remain, Respectfully,

I. H. ROBB, M. D.

CURE OF ECZEMA

Alderman Portman of 25th Ward, Chicago, Tells How He Was Cured of Eczema.

Something like twenty years ago I acquired what I afterward learned was a case of Eczema. It made its debut on the most prominent part of my face—my nose—and its effect was to place me under suspicion of being a confirmed toner, which suspicion was entirely unfounded. I fought it with balms, lotions, washes and powders, steaming apparatus and electricity, but without any permanent benefit. I had about given it up as a bad job, when I was told of your F. F. F. Remedy. I tried it, not because I thought it would do me any good, but because it could not do much harm. It cured me absolutely and completely.

Sincerely yours,

A. F. PORTMAN, 2169 Kenmore Ave.

Mr. Portman is an ex-Alderman from the 25th Ward, Chicago.

Not a dollar is lost or paid by you if F. F. F. fails to give results—fails to cure. You know our special agent, at the City Drug Store, is reliable. Are you willing to try F. F. F. on these terms?

All who pay their subscription in advance will be entitled to make estimates on the Licking county vote $500 in prizes. See announcement in another column.

The Pan-Celtic congress, in session at Carnarvon, Wales, recently, is a conglomeration of several gatherings, chief of which is the great Welsh Eisteddfod, Ireland has two annual Celtic gatherings—the Oisachtes and the Feis Ceoil. The Highlands of Scotland has a Med, and Brittany also keeps its Celticism aflame at an annual assembly. Maryland has no such assembly, but the study of the Gaelic is being encouraged in various ways.

JOHN BURROUGHS.

Famous Naturalist is Friend of Two Candidates For President.

John Burroughs, the famous naturalist, happens to be a close friend of both the Republican and the Democratic candidates for president of the United States. From his intimate relations with both it is inferred Mr. Burroughs will have a hard time deciding whether to vote for his friend Colonel Roosevelt or his friend and neighbor Judge Parker. Mr. Burroughs is so much a lover of nature that he dislikes to have her misrepresented in any way; hence he has taken to task some of the writers whose animal stories have recently become popular, asserting that however good these stories may be from a literary standpoint they cross the line between fact and fiction in their description of the habits of animals. It was a magazine article expressing such views which attracted the attention of President Roosevelt and led him to invite the naturalist to go with him on the trip in the west which he took

For overtime of more than five minutes and not exceeding fifteen minutes, suspension without pay for one day.

Where overtime is due to an accident occurring on the return trip to the office from the last delivery of the day, carriers should not be disciplined, but a full statement of overtime should be noted on the Monthly Statement of Overtime, under the head of "Remarks."

When a carrier persistently exceeds the schedule time of eight hours per day, the facts should be reported to the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, Free Delivery System, with a recommendation for the carrier's removal from the service.

Very respectfully,

J. L. BRISTOW, Fourth Assistant Postmaster General.

REGISTRATION DAYS

Every voter in the city of Newark is required to register this year in order to enable him to cast his ballot this fall. Everybody who is by reason of age, legal residence and other qualification of citizenship, eligible to vote for President, Tuesday, November 8, 1904, MUST REGISTER anew this year, regardless of any and all previous registrations.

The days for registration are as follows:

THURSDAY, OCT. 13.

THURSDAY, OCT. 20.

FRIDAY, OCT. 28.

SATURDAY, OCT. 28.

Henry G. Davis in his letter of acceptance of the Democratic nomination for the vice presidency presents briefly and clearly the salient issues of the campaign. He opens by declaring that the times are propitious for a change of the National administration, and the reinstatement of the Democratic party in control of the Government. Thoughtful and patriotic citizens, Mr. Davis avers, are becoming more and more distrustful of the imperialistic tendencies and personal element of the Roosevelt administration and are more than willing to see it replaced by one that recognizes constitutional and other lawful restraints. The extravagance of Republican rule is strongly set forth. Under the Democratic administration of President Buchanan in 1860 the Government expenditures were $63,000,000, and the per capita amount was only $2.01. Under Cleveland in 1882 the expenditures were $345,000,000 and the per capita but $5.29, while under Roosevelt the expenditures have reached $582,000,000 and the per capita is $7.14. The army cost has increased from $16,500,000 under Buchanan in 1860 and $32,000,000 under Hayes in 1880 to $115,000,000 under Roosevelt in 1904.

Hon. Carl Schurz, a distinguished German-American statesman and political leader, came out yesterday in another open letter advocating the election of Judge Parker for the presidency. This is only one of the many encouraging signs of the times, showing the drift of public sentiment and pointing to the election of Judge Parker. It is conceded by all that Carl Schurz is a brainy man, an honest man and a man of great influence, especially among the German-American citizens. His advocacy of Judge Parker's election will mean many accessions to the votes in the Parker column.

A Non-Union Boycott.

Manager McFarland, of the Knox Hat Company, announces that his firm will spend $100,000 in an effort to defeat Judge Parker, because the Democratic organization in New York City required a stipulation in the contract for Police helmets that the headgear must bear the Hatters' Union label. The Knox Hat Company—now fighting the Hatters' Union—was thus deprived of a fat contract, and hence the far-fetched animus toward Judge Parker.

"The campaign will be begun at once," asserted Mr. McFarland, "and will be carried to every State in the country. No power on earth can stop us. So unjust has Tammany Hall been to us that we shall have all of our agents appeal to their friends who are not members of trades unions to fight the Democratic ticket. If Tammany Hall is a type of Democracy, what we are now having in New York would be duplicated in the national government if the Democratic ticket were to be successful."

"We have customers in every city and State in the country, many of whom are stockholders in this company. I shall communicate with them and ask them to do all in their power to defeat the Democratic ticket, and to aid the Republicans. We shall have the cooperation of the citizens' alliances and anti-boycott associations all over the country in the movement."

"I have nothing against Parker personally, but because of the 'grave injustice which has been done to us by the local Democratic organization the national ticket must suffer.'"

Now, what do you think of that for a sample of Republican hatred of trade unionism, and how will you represent it on election day.

Democratic Speakers.

A large number of prominent Ohio Democrats will be on the stump in this state from now until election. Among those who are available for assignments at present the State committee announces the names of Hon. Horace L. Chapman of Jackson, Hon. Walter B. Ritchie of Lima, Hon. M. E. Ingalls and Hon. Charles W. Baker of Cincinnati, Hon. John H. Clarke and Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland, Colonel James Kilbourne, ex-Congressman J. H. Outhwaite, Hon. Allen W. Thurman, and Webster P. Huntington of Columbus, General E. B. Finley of Bucyrus, Hon. James Rice and Hon. John C. Welby of Canton, General Isaac R. Sherwood of Toledo, Hon. J. H. Geeske and Hon. S. A. Hoskins of Wapakoneta, Hon. A. F. Sandles, Democratic candidate for secretary of state, Hon. Martin B. Trainer and Hon. George B. Menck of Greenville, Hon. A. W. Patrick of New Philadelphia, ex-Governor James E. Campbell, Congressman Snook and General Charles M. Anderson. Other names will be announced in the near future.

New York World. It is intimated that the Philippine government may have to go into the opium business. That is one of the little things one has to accept along with imperial rule. People who do not like opium-selling and slavery and polygamy and similar irregularities should stay at home and let "some stronger, manlier race" assume their share of the white man's burden.

HERRICK ANK FORAKER

Never Did Have Any Use for Each Other, Says Harding.

Cleveland, O. Oct. 4.—"There is no special cordiality between Senator Foraker and Governor Herrick, but there is no row," said Lieutenant Governor Harding in Warren Saturday, in speaking of the reported quarrel between the two Ohio statesmen. "Herrick and Foraker never did have any use for each other."

Harding's remarks are significant, inasmuch as he has long been known as a Foraker lieutenant.

Senator Dick refused to discuss the Foraker-Herrick controversy. "It's a simple case of fool friends," he said. "You know some politicians are not happy unless they can stir up a factional fight, but there is no factional fight in Ohio today."

BEEF TRUST IS FOR ROOSEVELT

"Satisfied With His Administration" Says Armour, the Head of Big Packing Concerns.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—The Beef Trust is for Roosevelt. Some of its officers have made big contributions to the campaign fund. To the New York World's staff correspondent J. Ogden Armour frankly admitted the position of the trust. He said:

"We are going to support Roosevelt, most emphatically. We have been satisfied with his administration, and will be well satisfied to have him continue in office. I am sorry that I can't agree with the World that Parker is the better man for the position."

"Then President Roosevelt's position in regard to the trust question has not influenced you against him?" the World correspondent asked.

"One would naturally suppose," began Mr. Armour, but the sentence was never finished. Mr. Armour continued: "Anyhow, I think he is the best man for the country. I like a man of decided views, even if they aren't always in our favor. We can be pretty certain what he is going to do, and that means everything to a business man."

By "we" Mr. Armour means all his executives. It cannot be said definitely whether any of them were ever Democrats. Not even men who have known each other for years can tell.

The Swifts, of the other Beef Trust company, are also Republicans and are for Roosevelt.

The Armour interview really represents the sentiments of the Beef Trust.

BIG FIGHT

Between Republican Factious in Clermont County, Resulting in Two Separate Tickets.

Batavia, O., Oct. 4.—Riotous scenes were expected at the Clermont county Republican county convention yesterday.

The anti-Foraker men had the organization and the opposing faction claimed to have about 45 of the 35 delegates. When the temporary organization was announced the Forakerites moved another set of officers, but were ruled out. The anti-Foraker chairman and secretary were then ushered to the stage. The Foraker element selected another chairman and secretary and proceeded to transact business. The anti-Foraker faction rushed to the stage and threw the Foraker chairman from the platform. The Foraker chairman landed a blow that made a badly blackened eye for his principal assailant.

Each faction selected a ticket and a central committee. The anti-Foraker element nominated the following ticket:

John Fishback, sheriff; Resin Hawkins, commissioner; John Mars, recorder; Wm. Bourne, infirmary director, and Dr. Con. Gatch, coroner.

The Foraker faction nominated this ticket:

Frank Brown, sheriff; James Mc. Murchison, commissioner; Wm. Mont gomery, recorder; Thomas Hill, infirmary director, and Dr. Con Gatch, coroner.

AMUSEMENTS

The Auditorium was packed last evening and people were turned away unable to secure seats to see the initial performance of the Murray comedy company, which opened a week's engagement. The big crowd was pleased with the production, but that was to be expected, as the Murray comedy company is a favorite in Newark. Tonight's bill will be "Sherlock Holmes."

SI PLUNKARD COMING.

The J. C. Lewis' Si Plunkard company, which is billed for the Auditorium Monday night, October 10, presents a talented company of actors and comedians in an entirely new version of the well known comedy success, Si Plunkard. Rewritten and reconstructed. All new features, new novelties, everything new but the title.

WITH A LIMP

Walked the Man Who Fired Through the Doctor's Window and Narrowly Missed a Relative.

Chillicothe, O. Oct. 4.—An unknown man shot through the window of Dr. Meggenhoff's office on East Main street last night and barely missed William Greenbaum, a son-in-law of the doctor, who was sitting in the office.

Mr. Greenbaum, who is a book-keeper for Ermann & Son and secretary of the Elks lodge, is one of the most popular young men in the city, and has not a known enemy in the world. He was sleeping over his books, as the shot was fired, and this saved his life. The bullet lodged in the door.

It is thought by the police that the bullet was intended for the doctor. The man, who had a perceptible limp, escaped.

WITH HIS HANDS

Gilbert Called Gailman Names, Though They Employed Systems Not Alike.

Minneapolis, Oct. 4.—George Gilbert, a deaf mute, accused by Edward Gailman, another mute, of swearing at the latter, was arraigned and through an interpreter denied his accuser to prove it. Gailman's complaint was that Gilbert had used violent, indecent language and had cursed him with great violence, all by a few rapid twistings and wavings of his slender hands.

When Gailman tried to reproduce the silent words of Gilbert the interpreter started and then informed the Court that the two mutes talked in different languages and used systems that were not alike.

The case was complicated enough before this information was offered and in despair the Police Judge took it under advisement.

THE STORY OF VINOL

By Frank D. Hall, Druggist. Our experience with medicines extends over many years. We've had ample opportunity to watch thousands of them and their results. We've never seen any medicine sell itself as does Vinol. Customer after customer comes for Vinol again and again. That's the best kind of a testimonial. They wouldn't want a second bottle if the first gave no help or relief.

We want everybody in Newark to know the value of Vinol and how we stand behind it.

Vinol is popular and it takes because it possesses merit. Vinol contains all the curative, strength-creating elements of cod liver oil, without the nauseating, disagreeable taste and smell of the oil. Any one can take it without making a face. Old and young can digest it. There are many imitations of Vinol made from drugs and chemicals which are said to have the same effect as Vinol, but please remember the makers of Vinol are the only ones in the world who know the secret of separating the curative elements of the cod's livers from the oil and grease, and who can make for you a preparation containing all of the real alkaloids or medicinal principles of cod liver oil and not fool you with chemicals said to resemble the cod liver oil alkaloids. Therefore, there can be nothing else just as good.

Vinol gives you a hearty appetite. It does more. It tones up the stomach, it builds up the system in many ways. It's a tonic—a blood maker, a flesh creator and tissue builder. It's one of the best things known to medicine for weak lungs, wasting diseases or general debility.

We've sold hundreds of bottles of Vinol and guaranteed them. Hardly one in a hundred comes back to us. If you have not yet used Vinol we strongly commend it to you. Your money refunded if it does not benefit. Frank D. Hall, Druggist.

TENEMENT FIRE

Coroner's Jury Renders Verdict Finding Nobody Directly Responsible for the Deaths.

New York, Oct. 4. — The coroner's jury which has been investigating the death of 13 persons who lost their lives in the tenement house fire on Sept. 4 returned a verdict in which they found no persons directly responsible for said deaths. The jury censures the tenement house department and the building department for lax supervision of the building. The jury also recommends that the laws be amended so that responsibility in similar cases may be centered on one department. Three men who were arrested and charged with responsibility for the disaster were discharged.

German Celebrate.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 4.—In celebration of the two hundred and twenty-first anniversary of the first German settlement in Connecticut the German societies of the state held a field day here, upwards of 4,000 parading throughout the city streets carrying banners and escorting floats bearing representatives of historical events. Many buildings were draped with colors of the German federation. After the parade there were addresses, luncheons and a ball.

Passed the Bosphorus.

Constantinople, Oct. 4. — The Russian volunteer fleet steamer Nijni Novgorod has passed the Bosphorus homeward bound. The Nijni Novgorod was reported to have passed the Bosphorus on Sept. 26, carrying, it was said, 1,000 soldiers to relieve the Russian garrison at Crete. These soldiers, it was added, the Nijni Novgorod would convey to Port Said, where they would await orders.

Leasing of Indian Lands.

Washington, Oct. 4.—The commissioner of Indian affairs opened bids for the leasing of the segregated coal and asphalt lands in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations, Indian Territory. About 65,000 acres are involved.

THE RAILWAYS

PENNSYLVANIA ROAD AWARDS A BIG CONTRACT.

Engineer Convicted—Must Pay Full Fare—Budget of Local and General Railway News.

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company has awarded contracts for 600 steel hopper coal cars to the Pressed Steel Car company and the Cambria Steel company, each concern to build 300. Eighty passenger coaches will be built in its various car shops in this city, Wilmington, Del., and Altoona, Pa., and at the Meadow shops in New Jersey. Orders have also been issued for the building at the Altoona shops of 25 powerful freight engines to be used on the lines west of Pittsburgh. The company is considering a bid for 200 coke cars. The officials of the railroad say they are in urgent need of cars.

Must Pay Full Fare.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Frank Morrison, general secretary of the American Federation of Labor, has filed with the interstate commerce commission a complaint alleging discrimination on the part of the Transcontinental Passenger association and other railroad associations against the Federation of Labor in the matter of reduced rates for delegates to the national meeting of that organization at San Francisco, beginning Nov. 14. The protest alleges that in response to inquiries on the subject the federation was informed by the railroads that the "regular rate" would be charged. The federation officers claim that special rates are allowed theatrical companies, baseball teams and fraternal organizations, and that heretofore such rates have been accorded to their organization.

Engineer Convicted.

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—Judge Swartz in the Montgomery county court at Norristown refused to affirm a point submitted by an attorney that when a railroad employee falls asleep from physical weakness, from illness or from weariness from long hours or steady employment, and an accident occurs, the employee should be acquitted. The case was that of John F. Fleischutt of Pottsville, Pa., an engineer on a Pennsylvania railroad freight train. The freight train and a passenger train collided near Pottsville last April and two persons were killed and a dozen injured. The crew of the freight train were held by the coroner for criminal negligence. Fleischutt was convicted. The trial of the conductor will begin today.

Columbus Shops.

Commencing Saturday the shops of the Pan Handle were put on a 55 hour schedule. They have heretofore been operated 45 hours a week. The increase of 10 hours will allow them to be operated 10 hours a day, Monday to Friday inclusive, and five hours on Saturday. The shops at Columbus, Dennison, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Logansport and Chicago will be affected.

The increase is made necessary by improvement of business, which, though not yet up to the full capacity of all the available equipment, at times creates a demand for cars that cannot be easily filled. A large number of cars are out of commission because of need of repairs. The abandonment of the stringent policy of economies in operation which has been in effect for several months is the best of indications that business is good. Earnings generally have shown a remarkable tendency toward sustained increase in the past two months and railroad officials are reticent as regards any financial deals that they may be contemplating, it is believed that the gradual improvement in business will keep transportation lines busy during the fall and winter, and that next spring will witness an unusual boom in traffic conditions.—Columbus Press-Post

B. & O. passenger No. 7 was delayed about an hour and a half Monday at New Concord by the flues of the engine becoming choked with cinders. It was thought for a time a freight engine would have to be utilized to make the rest of the run, but the crew cleared the trouble without much difficulty.

The V that peeps out between the necktie and the vest, and the cuff rims appearing beyond the coat sleeves may seem to be insignificant, but the well-informed man knows that his entire appearance depends largely on what the shirt shows, small as seems its mission.

NATURAL GAS FRANCHISE

A. H. Heisey & Company Want to Sell Gas to People of Newark--Water Committee to Report at Next Meeting--Mayor Crilly Submits Figures on Water Works.

The City Council met in regular session Monday evening with President Rossell presiding and the following members present, Messrs. Baker, Carlile, Conrad, Hunter, Jones, Miller and Moser.

The minutes of the previous regular and special meetings were read and approved.

Councilman William E. Miller of the special committee to investigate the present water works plant asked for more time for their work and that they would report at the next regular meeting.

Mayor Crilly reported $246 collected during September.

Mayor Crilly also presented the following communication.

To the Honorable the City Council of the City of Newark, Ohio:

Gentlemen—I desire to call your attention to a comparison of the proposed water works system as it appears by the plans proposed by Mr. Chapin for the city at a cost of $120,000, with present system.

PROPOSED SYSTEM.

Capacity of Reservoir... 5,000,000 gal.
Capacity of pumping machinery per day... 5,000,000 gal.
Cap. force mains per day... 3,000,000 gal.
Number Fire Hydrants... 415
Number of Valves... 297
Length of Mains... 46 miles
Annual cost maintenance... $7,740.00
Capacity of Filters per day... No Filters

PRESENT SYSTEM.

Capacity of Reservoir... 3,500,000 gal.
Capacity of pumping machinery per day... 5,000,000 gal.
Cap. force mains per day... 4,000,000 gal.
Number Fire Hydrants... 253
Number of Valves... 153
Length of Mains... 66-100 miles
Annual cost maintenance... $12,000.00
Capacity of Filters per day... 2,000,000 gal.

The estimated cost of the Proposed System by Mr. Chapin is $200,000. Add to that the cost of filters $30,000.00 will make the system with filters stand $230,000.00. The agents of the present system are asking you to pay them $230,000.00 for their system, as it stands. Now compare the above figures, and will any business man say it is a good business proposition to buy the old water works?

Respectfully submitted,

ANDREW J. CRILLY,
Mayor.

A petition was read from 26 residents of Locust street asking for a sanitary sewer from Eighth to Fifth street, referred to the Public Service Board.

A communication was read from the A. H. Heisey company asking the council for a franchise to sell gas in the city, and that the question be submitted to a vote of the citizens at the November election. Received and filed.

An ordinance was read for the third time and passed, establishing a grade on Sixteenth street.

Ordinances were read for the first time accepting Nichols & Linn's and 'Full's fourth addition to the city.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Moser—That the question as to whether or not A. H. Heisey be authorized to operate a natural gas company in Newark, be submitted to a vote of the people; adopted.

By Mr. Carlile—Whereas, the City of Newark granted an amendment to the franchise of the Newark Gas Light and Coke company, giving the city an option of receiving free fuel gas or 2 per cent of the gross receipts, be it resolved that the latter proposition be accepted; referred to finance committee.

COUNTY FAIR OPENS

Officials are Trying to Bribe the Weather Man and if They Succeed the Annual Event Will be a Big Affair--Indications are Favorable for Large Crowds.

Licking county's big Fair is now on in all its glory. Everything there is in great variety to make the big Fair the success it should be and only unfavorable weather will prevent its being the best fair in the history of the association.

So far the weather man has been successfully bribed by President W. H. Kussmaul and Secretary J. M. Farmer to furnish favorable weather.

When the gates of the Fair opened Tuesday morning everything was still in a chaotic condition, and exhibitors were busily engaged in placing their exhibits. The exhibits in all the departments will be much larger this year than ever before. It is in the stock department, however, that the completeness of the exhibits is seen at this time. The stalls in the cattle, sheep and pig sheds are practically all taken. The stock is of the best breeds and cannot be surpassed by any exhibit in the state. Lovers of good horse flesh will also find enough to keep them busy if they do nothing more than take a passing look at the many horses that have been entered. In the race department the number of "flyers" entered is very large and some interesting sport is promised.

Among the special features provided for Wednesday (Children's Day), is the football game to be played between the Newark High school team and that of the Denison second team. This will be a game worth traveling miles to see, and as the teams are pretty evenly matched a fierce struggle for supremacy will result. The two teams will line up as follows:

Jones.....	Right Guard..... Jones

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT

Has Been the Means of Uniting Two Thompson Brothers Who Have Been Separated for About a Quarter of a Century.

A remarkable instance of members of one family being separated for years and reunited through a peculiar, almost providential incident, was related to an Advocate reporter by Frank W. Thompson of 26 Harrison street.

On Tuesday morning Mr. Thompson received a letter in his mail, the address being written in a handwriting which he did not recognize. The letter began as follows: "My Dear Brother," It then related circumstances and reminiscences of childhood days which conclusively proved that the writer was a brother of Mr. Thompson. The story is as follows, as told to the reporter.

Frank Thompson and George are brothers, both born in Philadelphia. Frank drifted west and finally located in Newark when a very young man. Letters were sent to Philadelphia and for a long time remained unanswered. Frank has thought his brother dead for 25 years and did not know he was alive until the letter which came Tuesday morning.

George read in a Pittsburg paper of the injury to Jack Keys, a Pittsburg electrician, who was nearly fatally burned in an underground cable box. The item was sent from Newark; that Keys was a son-in-law of Frank Thompson of this city, and he wrote to his brother with the result that they have now been reunited and will keep up communication with each other.

George Thompson is now employed with the Williams Sellers company, 2600 Hamilton street, Philadelphia.

Keys is still alive, but his condition is critical according to a letter received by the Thompson family on Monday.

MAY BE A MARCHIONESS.

Countess of Yarmouth, an American Girl, Home Again.

The beautiful Countess of Yarmouth, who is now on a visit to this country, is an American girl and was formerly Miss Alice Thaw. Her father, the late William Thaw, left a fortune of some $10,000,000, which was divided equally among his children. Her marriage to the Earl of Yarmouth, heir of the Marquis of Hertford, took place at Pittsburgh, the family home, in April, 1903. The genuineness of the earl's title is not disputed, but he was an impoverished nobleman when he became the husband of Miss Thaw. His family lawyer was brought from England to draw the marriage settlement, which, according to the statement given out by the bride's mother, set aside a certain part of the income of the countess for the benefit of the Yarmouth title and estates and as an income for her husband. The earl had much trouble with creditors during his stay in this country previous to the marriage. The acquaintance between him and Miss Thaw came about through her brother, Harry Thaw, who met the nobleman in France and gave a dinner in his honor which was said to have cost $25,000.

The favors were single jewels, each hundreds of dollars in value; the music cost $1,500 and the flowers $2,000. The principal guests besides the earl were beauties of the Paris theaters like Cleo de Merede, Mlle. Rosairo and La Belle Otero.

Benjamin and Edward Thaw, the other brothers of the countess, opposed the match and would not attend the ceremony. Her mother, Mrs. Thaw, also protested against it at first on account of stories that had been told regarding the past career of the earl. The Countess of Yarmouth, who may some day be a marchioness, while a resident of Pittsburgh was a girl of quiet tastes, not especially enamored of society, but devoted to books and charity and quite fond of animals.

ADMIRAL YUKO ITO.

Chief of Staff of Japan's Navy and His Interesting Career.

The remarkable success of the Japanese fleet is due in no small measure to Admiral Yuko Ito, chief of staff of the imperial navy. He is the senior admiral of the service and has been hard at work for many years preparing the mikado's ships for the great naval conflict he knew was inevitable and which is now being waged on the Yellow sea.

When the Chino-Japanese war began Admiral Ito took command of the Japanese fleet and in the great battle of the Yalu river won a victory over Admiral Ting's squadron which practically put the Chinese navy out of business for the remainder of the struggle. He was in the thick of the fight, and his flagship, the Matsushima, was badly damaged. The battle of the Yalu was the first engagement of importance between fleets of modern ironclads, and the victory gave Admiral Ito worldwide fame. He also took a conspicuous part in the capture of Port Arthur and Weihaiwei.

Thus far during the present war Admiral Ito has done no fighting, but has exerted all his energies in directing the movements of the various fleets and in keeping them in good condition for battle.

The admiral is tall for a Japanese and is robust in appearance. Despite the strenuous life he has led and the fact that he is past sixty, his hair is but slightly tinged with gray, and he is a very young looking man for his age. As illustrating his kindness of heart it is related that after the battle of the Yalu river he granted the Chinese Admiral Ting, who was completely in his power, an armistice of several days in which, according to oriental etiquette, the defeated Celestial might effect an honorable suicide and thus escape the official snickerings at Peking.

A Siesta In The Jungle

[Copyright, 1904, by T. C. McClure.]

Major Ridan of the Twelfth native cavalry, India, was hunting in Bengal with a small party, and one afternoon he wandered away from camp a short distance and stretched out under a tree for a nap. He had not slept above a quarter of an hour when he was aroused by what seemed to be the purring of a cat. Only the sound was much louder. He had never heard the purr of a tiger or panther, but realized in an instant that one or the other had come creeping upon him as he slept. He was lying on his left side and facing the river and the beast had come up behind him. The major opened his eyes, but did not move a finger. The beast's nose touched the man's shoulder and snuffed at his face, and the long whiskers on his muzzle tickled the man's cheek, but he did not move. Had he raised hand or foot the beast would have seized him by the neck at once.

The tiger, as was afterward ascertained, had his hair within a few hundred feet of where the soldier was lying. After a minute or two a paw was placed on the officer's shoulder and he was turned over on the broad of his back. Through his eye whiskers he caught sight of the paw and then realized that he was in the clutch of a full grown tiger. For the moment he was paralyzed. A panther hasn't the good nature of a tiger and is also more treacherous. A tiger will starve before he will feed on anything that he has not killed with his own paws, while a panther will grab at anything that comes in his way. Between the two the choice was with the tiger, and the major felt almost elated over his luck.

When the man had been turned on his back, the tiger sat up like a dog and purred like the great cat he was. The man had on a hunting jacket with silver buttons. They seemed to be objects of curiosity to the beast, and he touched the six of them in succession and slightly pulled at them with his paw.

The soldier's hat was lying on the grass near his head. The tiger reached for it and began to play with it as you have seen a puppy with a glove or rag. He struck it to the right and then to the left and then jumped after it and seized it in his teeth and gave it a toss into the air. He played with the hat for at least ten minutes and then sat up and yawned and returned to his victim.

Pretty soon a spur on the major's right boot heel attracted his attention. It was of brass and quite new and reflected the rays of the sun filtering down through the foliage. He licked at the metal and hurt his tongue on the rowel.

With a low growl he drew back and for a minute seemed to cogitate. Then he began licking at and biting the strap, which was also new and full of oil, and in a minute or two he had the spur off the boot. He then lay down and chewed at the strap as if he liked the taste, but after a time dung it aside and rolled over on his back and worked his body about on the grass as if bothered with fleas.

The beast was rolling and purring when one of the horses in camp uttered a neigh. The major was watching through half closed lids, and the move the tiger made astonished him. He turned like a flash and bounded six feet into the air to whirl again and stand head to camp. For five minutes he stood watching and sniffing and growling. His tail was held straight out, his ears lay back, and one paw was held about six inches from the ground as if ready to strike. As the neigh was not repeated the tiger returned to the major.

The major was rolled over at least a dozen times by the tiger, and the beast leaped over him back and forth like a dog at play, and he seemed to get a good deal of amusement out of it and to preserve his good nature. He finally fastened his teeth in the man's hunting belt and lifted him clear of the ground as easily as a man might lift a kitten. If the soldier had not been told over and over again that a tiger eats only what he kills, he would have made sure that he was to be carried off.

He had a revolver in his belt, and as his right hand fell down it encountered the butt of the weapon. He might have drawn it and killed the beast or a shot might have frightened him away, but it was hardly a chance in a hundred. It may be that the tiger was holding the man up to see if there was life in him and was hoping to feel him make a movement. If there had been the stir of a hand, death would have been swift and merciless. After swinging the man pendulum fashion for a full minute the beast lay him down as carefully as you please, gnawed the belt in two and pulled it off, and, carrying one end in his mouth, he frisked away and was hidden by the jungle.

An hour later the major's party had formed a cordon around the tiger's lair and sent in the beaters. At the first uproar the beast charged out with a fierce growl and killed a native with one blow of the paw which had treated the soldier so gently. Three minutes later he whirled and charged in the other direction, and, though he received bullets from two different rifles, he sprang upon Captain Woot of the artillery and carried him 300 feet before falling dead. The officer, who had been seized by the neck, was dead long before the tiger gave up the ghost. One of the bullets had cut the beast's heart, and yet he had bounded away with a man weighing 170 pounds in his jaws and seemed to have been only scratched.

Two severe cases of Ovarian Trouble and two terrible operations avoided. Mrs. Emmons and Mrs. Coleman each tell how they were saved by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am so pleased with the results obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I feel it a duty and a privilege to write you about it.

"I suffered for more than five years with ovarian troubles, causing an unpleasant discharge, a great weakness, and at times a faintness would come over me which no amount of medicine, diet, or exercise seemed to correct. Your Vegetable Compound found the weak spot, however, within a few weeks—and saved me from an operation—all my troubles had disappeared, and I found myself once more healthy and well. Words fail to describe the real, true, grateful feeling that is in my heart, and I want to tell every sick and suffering sister. Don't dally with medicines you know nothing about, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and take my word for it, you will be a different woman in a short time."—Mrs. LAURA EMMONS, Walkerville, Ont.

Another Case of Ovarian Trouble Cured Without an Operation.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For several years I was troubled with ovarian trouble and a painful and inflamed condition, which kept me in bed part of the time. I did so dread a surgical operation. "I tried different remedies hoping to get better, but nothing seemed to bring relief until a friend who had been cured of ovarian trouble, through the use of your compound, induced me to try it. I took it faithfully for three months, and at the end of that time was glad to find that I was a well woman. Health is nature's best gift to woman, and if you lose it and can have it restored through Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel that all suffering women should know of this."—Mrs. LAURA BELLE COLEMAN, Commercial Hotel, Nashville, Tenn.

It is well to remember such letters as above when some druggist tries to get you to buy something which he says is "just as good." That is impossible, as no other medicine has such a record of cures as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; accept no other and you will be glad.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat you with kindness and her advice is free. No woman ever regretted writing her and she has helped thousands. Address Lynn, Mass.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

OHIO MEN

Injured by the Wrecking of an Automobile in Which Speed Tests Were Made.

New York, Oct. 4.—One man was probably fatally injured and two others severely cut and bruised by the wrecking of an automobile in which they were making a rapid speed test preparatory to next Saturday's race for the Vanderbilt cup, near Hicksville, L. I. The man who may die is a machinist named Rigby, employed by a Toledo (O.) automobile company, and the others are fellow employees named Appleton and Little, both from the same place. They were within half a mile of their destination when one of the large front tires parted from the wheel. Simultaneously the steering gear became disabled and the automobile, swerving at right angles, crashed into a rail fence. As the machine turned upon its side the three were thrown out with great violence. Appleton and Little fell unconscious in the middle of the road, but Rigby was flung against the fence and three of his ribs were broken, one of them penetrating the lung.

ATE CANDY

Then the Despondent Girl Jumped In to the River—Grieved Over the Death of a Sister.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 4.—Mame Rock, aged 25, yesterday afternoon ended her life by leaping from the steel bridge to the Ohio river below, a distance of 100 feet.

The girl left home but a short time before for the announced purpose of taking a walk and buying some chocolates. She went direct to the bridge after getting the candy and was seen eating it when she paid her toll. Walking to the middle of the channel span she finished the candy, then deliberately climbed the rail and dropped to the river below.

She had grieved since the death of a small sister a few months before. She would stand in front of her portrait crying, and yesterday got some money for the purpose of buying some remembrances for the little one's friends, saying:

"Margaret would like me to do it." The affair has almost broken the heart of her mother. No trace has been found of the body.
